Content Reading Rods« Skill Kits supplement any curriculum by reinforcing key literacy skills through the use of hands-on activities that encourage students to practice their reading and writing skills. Each kit focuses on the skills researchers have identified as most critical for reading success. The following eight kits can be used with students in Kû8 levels: Alphabet and Phonemic Awareness; Initial Consonants and Word Families; Short Vowel Word Families; Making Words; Phonics Word-Building; Prefixes, Suffixes, and Root Words; Simple Sentences; and Sentence Construction. Each kit can be used for one on one teaching, small groups or learning centers.

Student Experiences Reading Rods« Skill Kits contain activity flipbooks that offer independent practice with an easy-to-follow pattern of find, build, say, and write. As students work through the steps, they become more independent learners while developing their understanding of a specific literacy concept.

Assessment Formal and informal assessment activities for the teacher are built into Reading Rods« Skill Kits. The TeacherÆs Resource Guide gives simple suggestions to help assess studentsÆ understanding and offers ideas for continued practice of the objectives if students are not at the level they need to be.

Organization The TeacherÆs Resource Guide is full of ready-to-use lessons, blackline masters, word lists, and assessments. Every lesson has a clear objective, concise directions, and examples for you to start the activity. Each Skill Kit is available with enough materials for one student or for a reading group of five students. In addition, Reading Specialist Kits are available in individual and group forms.
